Summary: A man tells the story of how he became "The Stealer" and the trouble he got into. Part of my Silent Crime series.

The stealer

Tha Stealer

*read with light on its really sacry

I consider myself an elite operative more like a boner haha but no. I sleep with a lot of women so I consider myself a spy who sleeps with a lot of women. But every once in a while when I sleep with a lot of women I have the urge to steal things so what I do is while I'm sleeping with a woman I skillfully steal her purse while plowing. It's a double win lol because I sleep with a lot of women.

My fag doctor told me that I should stop sleeping with a lot of women because sooner or later it will have negative effects on boners. But I don't listen to him because I bet he doesn't sleep with a lot of women but I sure as hell do! Catch The Lone Ranger in theatres now! What a fag lol but that's okay that just means that there's more women for me to sleep with because I sleep with a lot like seriously.

So what I did is I tied up my doctor and forced him to sleep with a lot of women. While he was distracted I stole his wallet because I'm sneaky some people call me "the cat" on account of my stealth and cunning. And just like a cat it was mating season so I went home and plowed a bunch of girls and slept with a lot of girls. I like to plow them to music composed by Ramin Djawadi. It's almost like an aphrodisiac it helps me feel ;)

I got my nickname (the stealer) after stealin virginity because I sleep with a lot of women. I was a late bloomer but I still plowed regularly and fervently, but I didn't discover Ramin Djawadi yet so it didn't please me

So I stole a Ramin Djawadi soundtrack and that's when I became a man because I was at an orgy and I asked the DJ hey can I play this and he's like "F *k you you f *kin P *ck I'm gonna f *ck your gob with a rusty * while singing Under and Over It by Five Finger Death Punch you f *kin ct I'll stab yer mum in the a with my per and she'll scream 'oh st that per's in me a' so you better run you f *kin smeg I'll whip you with me per and shove it down your *  and * your * to kingdom c*m you damn wre I'll sell you to me neighbor so their bch will eat yer remains after I plow ya in the a".

I said thank you and put the soundtrack in and stole some women hehehe

That's why they call me the stealer.
